WHO: Colonel Danny Fuhr, Superintendent, Utah Highway Patrol (UHP)
Art Brown, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD)
Representatives from New Car Dealers of Utah

WHAT: The New Car Dealers of Utah's Good Wheels foundation will present the Utah Highway Patrol with a $5,000 check to help reduce drunk drivers on Utah roads. Following the check presentation, representatives from UHP and MADD will speak more about the dangers and consequences of drunk driving.

WHEN: Thurs. Dec. 30
11 a.m.

WHERE: Utah Highway Patrol Section 4 Office
5681 South 320 West
Murray, UT

WHY: The UHP plans to have troopers working extra shifts over the New Year's weekend, which will utilize the generous donation from New Car Dealers of Utah Good Wheels Foundation. The UHP wants everyone to reach their destinations safely but drivers must do their part and not drive under the influence. Troopers will be out in full force during a statewide DUI blitz New Year's Eve.
